Pam gave us an update on the Balloon Festival coming up in October.

Also, last month Paul had a great idea about having an Ice Cream social with all homemade ice cream. It sounded s like one heck of a good idea, but unfortunately no one volunteered to make the ice cream. So, plan B. Paul will find a spot, Maybe Farell's. Thanks Paul. I still think it was a great idea.

Hey, our first event of the year at Irwindale is THIS Saturday. This is always a ton of fun. Lunch beforehand is planned. Again, check out our web site for more info.

NCCC Governor: Dave Bratt

Dave was out. He had to give a presentation to the planning commission in San Dimas.

Sue read off a ton of birthday names for the month. And, as usual, we did a great job singing Happy Birthday. My lovely wife celebrated #35. There were quite a few anniversaries for the month also, including yours truly.....9 years.

Ron checked the driver's side vanity mirror. It's that thing us guys never use. Thanks Ron.

Corvette was named the "Most American Built Car". Only the engines, chassis and bodies are made in Canada. Only kidding. Great job Corvette.

Apparel: Dan Borer

Dan does an amazing job and brought some samples of his work. Great job Dan. Dan does all kinds of designs, not just Corvettes. So, if you happen to have, say a Mustang or a Porsche, he can create whatever you want. Thanks Dan

Phil we miss you.

Homecoming: Ken Monterastelli

Still only one Glendora on the books. We need 3 more cars.

Holiday Party: Jody & Henry

Everything is on schedule. If you plan on bringing your own bottle of wine, the hotel will be charging a $12 corkage fee, per bottle, must be paid when you bring the bottle (or bottles) to Jody and Henry. The plan is to get your bottle or bottles to Jody & Henry prior to the party. Put your name on the bottles, and they will deliver the bottles to the hotel. The corkage fee will be paid at that time. Please, if you have any questions, contact Jody or Henry.
