Activities: Paul

11-17: In & Out Burger car show at the Fairplex.

11-27: 4th Tuesday dinner followed by the light show at the AAA
Speedway

12-1: Our Holiday Party

12-7: Charter Oak Parade. We'll pre-stage at Jan & Richards. More info to follow

12-8: Fontana Christmas parade, meet at Rotolos. Don't forget toys for their toy drive. Lunch at Applebee's after the parade, compliments of Rotolo

12-9: Elks Toy Drive and car show.

12-11: Our last meeting for the year. Awards and Introduction of our new Board Members.

Our Oregon trip is just around the corner, and Steve gave us some exciting news. Juan and Martha will be giving Steve a hand coordinating the event. Thanks guys.

Lots and lots of information. Please check our web site for details.

NCCC Governor: Dave Bratt

We'll be hosting the next NCCC event.

Inspirational pictures: a very special program started by our President. The Finalists are Paul, Sue and Steve.

Sunshine: Sue McElroy

Lots of birthdays for November, and we did an outstanding job singing Happy Birthday.

Car of the Year: Ron Kennedy

Ron checked wheels and the engine compartment. This was the last inspection for the year. Our "Car of the Year" will be announced at the December meeting. Good luck everyone. Ron said it's a close race.

Rotolo Rep: Doug McElroy

Rotolo has 6-2019 new Corvettes for sale. Also, GM is offering 0% financing for 3 years. It's time to buy that new Corvette.

NCM: Kevin Jones

The museum is having a kids event this month. Also, veterans and their families get in for free in November. It's the last race for Corvettes this month. Good luck guys.

Apparel: Dan Borer

Now that the weather is cooling down, Dan can do sweaters, jackets, sweatshirts and all kinds of heavy gear. I wonder if he can do jackets or shirts for the grandkids? "Future Corvette Owner".

Parliamentarian: Phil Caughey

We're doing good per Phil. Also, check out Phil's YouTube video. It's all about his Corvette. Great video Phil.

Homecoming: Ken Monterastelli

We had an amazing year. We had budgeted $1085, and we took in $1610, OUTSTANDING. Ken thanked all the drivers that took time out of their busy Friday nights, some braving rain and dirt tracks. Thanks Ken. I know we are all looking forward to next years events.

Holiday Party: Jody & Henry

Just a reminder, if you plan on bringing your own bottle of wine, the hotel is charging a $12 corkage fee. Get the bottle (or bottles) to Jody and Henry prior to November 26. Give them the corkage fee. They will deliver the bottles to the hotel and pay the fees. Jody asked that we do not arrive before 5:45 at the hotel. The party committee needs time to set up. Also, Jody and Henry are looking for a volunteer photographer.

Old Business

Mikey reminded us about the Elks Club Toy Drive and car show on Dec. 9. There will be lots of food and the bar will be open.

Elections

Thanks to everyone that voted and a special thanks to those members that accepted the nominations.

New Business

Gail and Chuck have a new granddaughter.

Georgia has a new great grand baby.

Randy and Glenda are expecting their first “great grandchild”.

Congratulations to everyone.

Randy also expressed a big “Thanks” for all those cards, visits and prayers. Great to see you feeling better.

Kevin and Debbie framed one of Steve’s fantastic maps from one of the runs. Steves attention to detail is amazing.

Jeff and Bob donated 2 beautiful lithographs and 2 diecast Corvettes to the club. And, for the first time in club history (I think) we had an auction during the meeting. The four items sold for a grand total of $245, and ALL the $$ was donated to the club. Big thanks to Jeff and Bob.
